

LU Examination Forms Can Now Be Filled via Samarth Portal Until Dec 26

Lucknow, Correspondent: The deadline for filling out examination forms for the first semester of Undergraduate (UG) and Postgraduate (PG) courses under the 2025-26 Odd Semester exams at Lucknow University has been extended. Regular students can now fill out these forms through the Samarth Portal until December 26. Instructions regarding this have been issued by the Controller of Examinations.

Controller of Examinations Vidyanand Tripathi stated that students admitted to the university can create their login using the enrollment number they received to complete the form-filling process. After filling the form online, students must submit a printout to the office of the respective Dean, Head of Department (HOD), or Director.

Note: Campus students are not required to pay an additional examination fee. For more information, students can visit the official university website.
